COUNTY FAIR OFFICERS ELECTED

September 26, 27 and 28 Selected as Dates for Holding Fair.

The Columbia County Fair Association met in the office of County School Superintendent Allen on the afternoon of February 6 and perfected an organization for the ensuing year, all members being present. W. J. Gallerton was elected president; J. K. Lovelace and J. W. Pomeroy, vice presidents, and J. W. Allen, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Fred Trow was appointed superintendent of the woman's building, with Mrs. J. G. Watts, of Scappoose, as her assistant. W. Allen was selected as superintendent of the school building, and Roy Tarbell, superintendent of dairying. A. M. Williams will have charge of the poultry division, and Mrs. S. E. Lynch of the floral department, while Mrs. O. M. Washburn will be manager of the baby show, and J. W. Pomeroy, superintendent of the agricultural building.

Much business pertaining to the fair was talked over and definite plans formulated. It was decided that the entrance to the fair grounds be improved and that a side entrance be provided for teams. The county school superintendent was allowed $250 for the school children's department.

September 26, 27 and 28 were chosen for the fair dates because the state fair begins on September 17, and if the county fair was held previous to the state fair it would give the schools practically no time to make their exhibits.

The premium list will be thoroughly revised, not with an eye to commercialism in paying excessive premiums, but to encourage exhibits of excellence and with the idea that the exhibitor receiving an award will be well paid by such recommendation. Attractive prizes will be hung up for producers and producers and the very best of judges secured. The dairy interests will be given more attention than heretofore, as it is a recognized fact that Columbia county has some of the best dairy herds in the state.

The newly elected officers are determined to run the fair on business principles and the strictest economy will be observed. They are determined that it shall be a success financially as well as in other lines, and to this end will make every possible effort to make of it the best county fair yet held in Columbia county.

PITTSBURG-ST. HELENS ROAD IS ENDORSED

Commercial Club Favors Road and Appeals to County Court.

If the matter were to be left to the Commercial Club, the Pittsburg-St. Helens road would be built and the construction of the road rushed. This was the sentiment of the club at its meeting Thursday night, February 1. There were 30 members of the club present and the matter of paving was brought to the attention of the club, inasmuch as the county court had signified its willingness to pave 16 feet of a roadway between the courthouse and the St. Helens depot. There was considerable debate on whether the building of the Nehalem road or the laying of the pavement would be the most advisable, and on a vote the members present, by a vote of 28 to 2, went on record as in favor of the Nehalem road.

John W. Cunningham, an engineer of Portland, was present and gave the club a very interesting talk on the several kinds of pavements used. He had samples of each kind of pavement with him which showed exactly the mixture and approximate strength of such pavement.

The membership committee reported that thirty new members had signed the roll, and more were in prospect. Mr. Snelling reported on the drafting of the resolutions as to encouraging the Eccles company to make St. Helens the terminus of its railroad. It was resolved that all members attend the meeting of the county court Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock to bring to the attention of the court the necessity of building the Pittsburg road.

Wednesday afternoon twenty-five members of the club met with the county court. J. W. Allen and Glen R. Metaker stated that the building of the Pittsburg road was a necessity to both the Nehalem farmer and the St. Helens business men. A. S. Harrison stated that as soon as a road was put through he and other business men of St. Helens would put on auto trucks to bring the produce of the Nehalem valley to St. Helens.

Roadmaster Abry thought that a 14-foot roadway, instead of the 24-foot roadway as outlined by the state surveyors, would answer all purposes for the next ten years and also decrease the cost of the proposed road-building about 30 per cent. Several others gave the court their views on the matter. The court was non-committal on the subject, but there is no doubt as to the court's favorable attitude on spending several thousand dollars on the road this year. The Nehalem people, according to Commissioner Weed, have voted an extra

GOOD RESULTS FROM SCIENTIFIC DAIRYING

Cow Testing Association is Dairyman's Friend.

Eight months ago the Gresham Columbia Slough Cow Testing Association started its year's work. There are seven members of the association living near Scappoose and Warren, and so great has been the interest in the work that many more dairymen want to test the coming year.

We do not have to look far in any of the leading farm and dairy papers before we find some interesting facts regarding the cow testing movement. A few years ago there were no associations in Oregon, but at the present time there are more than 20 and new ones are being organized every year. Why is it? Simply because the dairymen realize that it is the only way to find the actual production of their individual cows, that it is the direct means of discovering

ST. HELENS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Scappoose High School Wins Basketball Games.

Wednesday of last week a basketball game was played here between the Scappoose High quintet and the St. Helens High. The Scappoose team, being very much larger and more experienced, won the game after a hard fight. Saturday our team journeyed to Scappoose, where they were again defeated, the score being 19 to 12. People who witnessed this game said it was one of the roughest basketball games ever played in this county.

Friday evening the Boys' Adelphe Literary Society held its regular weekly meeting and elected the new officers for this semester. After the election a very interesting program was given by the different members.

Next Monday afternoon the high school will commemorate Lincoln's birthday by rendering a program, to which the public is cordially invited. After the program the high school students will be dismissed for the remainder of the afternoon.

Following is the program: Selection, High School Orchestra; reading, Adelaide Adams; piano solo, Anna Larson; comic reading, Lester Lake; cornet solo, Mr. Shisler; speech, Rev. Taylor. Rev. Taylor's speech will be about the "Life of Abraham Lincoln."

The ignorance of those freshmen! Mr. Shisler in history class: "Mr. Harrison, what can be said of the United States possessions, since the purchase of the Danish West Indies?" Bob H.: "The sun rises and sets on the United States' territory."

tax and will expend about $5,000 on the road, and if this district can appropriate a like amount some progress will be made.

It was pointed out that temporary repairs on the old road would be money wasted, as the grade at some places reaches a maximum of 20 per cent, and the new survey, by going around these hills and mountains, establishes a grade not to exceed 5 per cent at any place.

The commercial club met again last night to further consider the proposition and formulate plans for a concerted effort towards the building of this road, which, for the past thirty years, has been deferred. With the club and citizens of St. Helens and Nehalem valley co-operating with the county court, it is not beyond the range of possibility that within the next few years the Nehalem country can be made accessible to St. Helens without having to travel 100 miles to reach a point 22 miles distant.

the "loafer" and through this they are able to improve their herds. At this day and age the production is not all that bothers; the breeding is just as great a problem, and this is another branch that is given attention by the testers of the associations. The fact that many are testing year after year and still getting results should be proof as to the worth of the work. The honor roll given here is something that interests the members and there is the encouragement to put as many cows in this as possible. When we note that the two high cows are producing upwards of three pounds of butter a day while over 60 per cent of the ordinary cows do not produce one pound a day, it is easy to see how testing determines the profitable and the unprofitable cows.

DAN S. FRAME, Official Tester.

The following table gives the records of cows in the association which have produced more than 40 pounds of butterfat during the 30 days ending February 1, 1917:

COUNTY AGENT AT POMONA GRANGE

Temporary Agricultural Council Organized With Offices in St. Helens.

D. C. Howard, the newly appointed agricultural agent of Columbia county, made his first appearance before the farmers at the Pomona Grange meeting in Clatskanie last Saturday. He was accompanied by Paul V. Maris, from the state agricultural college, who has charge of the county agent work in the state.

Mr. Howard stated he did not pretend to know all things about farming, but that he believed he would be in a position to render a great deal of assistance, and that with the co-operation of the people he expects to accomplish things worth while, as county agents elsewhere are doing.

Following Mr. Howard's talk the County Agricultural Council was organized. Mr. Maris explained that these council members are to be the county agent what the cabinet members are to the president of the United States. They are to be his advisors, helping him to see the most useful lines of work that can be followed out in the county. Representative farmers from various parts of the county were present to participate in this preliminary organization. Among those present were the following: Harry West, delegate from the Scappoose Community Club; Ray Tarbell, delegate from the Yankton Grange; A. L. Harvey, county commissioner; R. N. Lovelace, delegate from the Beaver Valley Grange; H. W. Brown, Pulney; Wm. Rose, delegate from Nat'l Grange of Mist; F. B. Holbrook, delegate from Beaver Homes Grange; O. J. Link, of Goble Grange; F. W. Roberts and Fred Woodhouse, from Beaver Homes; Fred A. Adams, of Scappoose; M. P. Young, of Clatskanie, and J. M. Reddick, of Clatskanie.

Harry West, of Scappoose, was elected president of the organization, and Ray Tarbell, of Yankton, secretary. Constitution and bylaws were adopted stating that the purpose of the organization was to co-operate with the Oregon Agricultural College and the United States department of agriculture in maintaining the office and directing the work of the county agricultural agent.

It was decided to postpone the election of permanent officers of the agricultural council until Saturday, February 17, when a meeting will be held in St. Helens, at which time it is hoped to have delegates present from some districts which were not represented at the meeting in Clatskanie Saturday. It seemed to be the unanimous opinion of these present that St. Helens is the most logical place for the permanent office of the county agent, and a motion was passed that it be located here.

CONDITIONS IN CANADA

G. M. Perry, who lives in Alberta, Canada, about 100 miles distant from Calgary, was a recent visitor to St. Helens relatives. Mr. Perry has a 500-acre wheat ranch in that portion of the king's domain. He states that Alberta is very prosperous on account of the large wheat yield and the top notch prices which the farmers received. In his own locality he states fifteen Canadians have enlisted and gone to the front. Five of them are known to have been killed, two are missing and the remaining eight are still at the front. Recruiting is still in progress, though not as many men as first answered the call are now responding. The policy of the government is not to take the men who are operating large farms and raising big crops. As an illustration, Mr. Perry states that on a recent occasion a farmer presented himself for enlistment. He was asked how many acres he cultivated and how many bushels of wheat he raised. Upon answering, he was told to go home, for the British government needed him on the farm. The Canadians, of course, are sanguine of ultimate victory but do not expect the war to terminate soon.
